For the Week of June 14, 2009

Please note: The deadline for announcements is Wednesday at 8:00am. You may drop items off in the office, or e-mail glaciap@messiahlutherangj.org

WORSHIP

Please order Altar Flowers through the office. Signup sheets are located in the office above the white bookcase behind the receptionist desk. The cost is $25.00 per bouquet, and must be paid upon ordering; please attach your check to the clipboard.

FLOWERS TODAY WERE GIVEN by Jim and Ruth Perry in celebration of their 69th wedding anniversary.

GLUTEN FREE COMMUNION WAFERS are available for those who are allergic to wheat products. The Gluten Free wafers are in a bowl on the wafer tray separate from the standard wafers. They are an off-white or almost yellow in color and very fragile. They are kept separate so that they are not contaminated by the wheat wafers. If you desire this wafer, please serve yourself. The Elders have been handling the wheat wafers and should they serve you, the Gluten Free would be contaminated. The Elders are aware of this situation and will respect you serving yourself a wafer. The volunteers that prepare Communion are also aware of the importance of this and handle the wafers accordingly. These wafers are stored separately following Communion. To make sure there will be sufficient Gluten Free wafers available, please inform the Altar Guild by leaving a message for Janice Davis at 260-8257 or calling the church office 245-2838.

LUTHERANS FOR LIFE "At a time in our society when the definition of marriage is being challenged in the courts it is important for us Christians to remember that marriage is not whatever we choose to make of it, but that it is what God has made it to be for us. There may be cultural and social changes that occur in marriages, but the heart of marriage as given by God must not change." Rev. Dr. Richard C. Eyer, director emeritus of the Concordia Bioethics Institute
